

Diana Zoe Coop: Artist/Designer

Diana Zoe Coop received her BFA at the University of Manitoba, (gold medallist), her MFA from Syracuse University, New York and Postgraduate specialty training at Saint Martin's School of Art, London, England.

Over the past thirty years, Coop has participated in more than forty exhibits of her paintings, drawings, and three dimensional works across Canada and the United States. Major exhibits were mounted at Sidney and Gertrude Zack Gallery (Vancouver), Rebecca Gallery (Toronto), Site Gallery (Winnipeg), Amelia Douglas Gallery, (New Westminster), and Linda Lando Fine Art Gallery (Vancouver).

Projects and commissions include selection as the artist designer of the City of Vancouver Summer Street Banners, the Point Grey Village Banners, Vancouver, the "Tree of Hope", at the Hope Breast Cancer Resource Center, Winnipeg, "Tribute" commissioned by the Positive Womens' Network, Vancouver, "Illuminations", commissioned by the Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Residence, at the Louis Brier Home, Vancouver, installations at Temple Shalom, Vancouver, and the Beaches Synagogue, Toronto as well as the University of Manitoba.

Coop is a long time biographee in the Canadian Who's Who for her contribution to visual arts in Canada. Her works hang in private and corporate collections in Canada, USA, UK, Holland, Italy, Australia, Bulgaria, Poland, Czech Republic, Austria, Serbia, France, and Finland.

Diana Zoe Coop's costume designs for dance, gymnastics, syncro and skating have been featured in contemporary productions, and worn by Canadian athletes at World Championships, World Cups, Grand Prix, and the Olympic Games. She has recently launched her company, "ZoeyCouture" the costume design division of her work, which can be viewed at www.zoeycouture.com

Commissioned outdoor garden panels (Berck/Kidd, Toronto) "The Greensides Project" is profiled in the "Moving Towards Green" feature of the Guild Architectural and Interior Art Sourcebook, 2008, published in the USA and distributed worldwide.

Coop's paintings on paper and canvas reflect an intimate exploration of the Japanese Garden, water features, seasons, and diverse plant life that make this an art form unto itself. Her costumes are an extension of the canvas, and each design she creates for the athletes and dancers are a celebration of the powerful unity between kinetic movement, choreography, music, and visual art.

Diana Zoe Coop's working studio, Island Studio, is located on Vancouver's Granville Island and is open to the public by appointment.
